mackdonald language academy

Mission statement:

Our mission is to value the ability, individuality and cultural background of all students by providing everyone with the opportunities they need to reach their full potential as active members of society within an inclusive ethos/culture.

mackdonald language academy is committed to supporting, developing and promoting equality and diversity in all of its practices and activities and aims to establish an inclusive culture free from discrimination and based upon the values of dignity, courtesy and respect.

mla is committed to eliminating discrimination and advancing equality on the grounds of age, disability, gender reassignment, marriage and civil partnership, pregnancy and maternity, race, religion and belief (including lack of belief), sex and sexual orientation and to fostering good relations between different groups.

This policy strives, not only to comply with legal requirements, but to use these to ensure that mla follows best practice.

At mla, we value diversity and recognise that we are greatly enhanced by the disparate range of backgrounds, experiences, views, beliefs and cultures represented within its staff and student bodies. This policy applies to all students and staff.

Legislative Background:

Under Equality legislation it is unlawful to:

- Discriminate directly against anyone and treat him/her less favourably than others on the grounds of the protected characteristics of: age (unless this can be justified as a proportionate means of achieving a legitimate aim), disability, gender reassignment, marriage and civil partnership, race, religion and belief (including lack of belief), sex and sexual orientation. This also includes discrimination based on perception of the person e.g. a belief that someone is gay or a belief that someone is disabled even if this is not actually true.
- Discriminate against someone for reasons relating to their association with a person on the grounds of the protected characteristics of race, sexual orientation, religion or belief, age, disability, gender reassignment, sex and e.g. discriminating against an employee/student because they have a disabled dependant.

- Discriminate indirectly against anyone by applying a criterion, provision or practice which disadvantages people with a protected characteristic (age, disability, gender reassignment, marriage and civil partnership, race, religion and belief (including lack of belief), sex and sexual orientation) unless the person applying the provision can justify it as a proportionate means of achieving a legitimate aim.
- Subject someone to harassment for reasons relating to age, disability, gender reassignment, race, religion and belief (including lack of belief), sex and sexual orientation.

This includes behaviour that an individual finds offensive on these grounds even if the behaviour is not directed at the individual. It also includes failure of an employer to take reasonable steps to protect an employee from persistent (3 occasions or more) third party harassment.

- Victimise someone because s/he has made, or intends to make, a complaint or allegation or has given or intends to give evidence in relation to a complaint of discrimination in line with the Equality Act.

Definitions:

Equal opportunities refers to the elimination of unlawful and unfair direct and indirect discrimination of particular groups and promoting equal access, treatment and outcomes that take into account specific needs of individuals.

Diversity encompasses visible and non-visible individual differences that include, but are not limited to, differences protected by anti-discrimination legislation. Appreciating diversity is about valuing differences and recognising that everyone through their unique mixture of skills and experience has their own valuable contribution to make.

In particular, staff are asked:

- Actively to encourage non-discriminatory practices and to report any incidences of behaviour that fail to comply with this policy.
- To support the aims of the mla Equality and Diversity policy.

Dealing with discriminatory incidents:

- The first step in handling incidents involving discrimination is to recognise and acknowledge what is happening.
- All students need know that name-calling or physically hurting someone is unacceptable.
- Discuss with the students in a democratic and sensitive manner that name-calling or physically hurting someone is unacceptable.
- When an incident occurs, both students learn from the incident. Refer back to the rules of the service where appropriate.
- Always determine the real reason for incidents involving exclusion or conflict. It may not be a discriminatory incident, so be careful not to make assumptions.
- An incident should be considered from the perspective of all individuals involved as well as those who witnessed it. Appropriate actions need to be taken, at circle time or in group discussion, in order to address incidents witnessed by students who were involved. This does not mean singling out students in the group.
- By showing empathy and expressing our feelings, we help students to express their feelings.
- It is important to be aware of how our own attitudes can shape how we respond to a given situation. Be mindful that adults are role models for the students.
